

PRUDENTIAL'S Pre –Transfer Information Center

Employees are encouraged to contact Prudential's pre transfer information center when they are considering a relocation. Pre transfer services is a no fee program that will assist you in understanding and determining the financial impact of relocating based on the real estate and financial market at your old and new duty stations. The program provides information on real estate, mortgage, eligilibilty questions for NOAA's home sale program, education/school reporting, medical facilities, places of worship, and other interests, including sports, shopping etc.